

Elderflower Womenspirit Festival Scholarship Application

Must be submitted prior to July 1st for consideration.

Elderflower Womenspirit is dedicated to making the festival accessible to low-income women, as well as to those experiencing a temporary hardship. There are a limited number of partial fee scholarships available. Prior to granting a request for scholarship, a representative of the Core Committee will contact you to discuss possible options for making the festival affordable for you. A completed registration form and minimum deposit of $175 is required for the application to be considered.

Monthly payments can be made via PayPal.
